

User Experience Checklist

SR#	Condition	Applicable (Y/N)	Result (P/F)
Application Standard
1. User Interface Design
1.1.	The specified application layout structure is correctly implemented and consistently adhered to as outlined in the specifications	Y
1.2.	GUIs are organized correctly as per specs	Y
1.3.	The format of all controls, sections, and panels adheres to specifications. This includes correct font, foreground/background color, size, style, border, and pointer shape.	Y
1.4.	Format of identifiers (like labels, section headings, and column headers adheres to the specified specifications	Y
1.5.	The control is consistently positioned, adhering to specified left and right margins	Y
1.6.	Controls follow the specified alignment, ensuring that controls at the same level start at the same position. Child elements are appropriately indented for clarity.	Y
1.7.	Control is consistently positioned from a fixed starting point. Its left and right margins adhere to the specifications	Y
1.8.	Spelling and Grammar of the displayed Text is correct	Y
1.9.	Vertical and horizontal scroll is avoided (wherever possible)	Y
1.10.	Each GUI contain meaningful and correct GUI/Window Title	Y
2. Navigation
2.1.	Navigation options (Links, Buttons, etc.) are consistently located between different GUIs	Y
2.2.	Focus is on the first enabled entry control when the GUI is open.	Y
3. Tabbing
3.1.	Tab order is from left to right, and Top to Bottom	Y
3.2.	Tab order includes only enabled controls when the GUI is open to add or edit operation/transaction	Y
3.3.	Shift + Tab move the focus to previous control.	Y
3.4.	Labels/Text are not included in the Tab Order	Y	